Summer Training – Career and technical education instructors from across the Anderson County school system attended the state CTE summer conference in Murfreesboro last month. The theme was “New Directions for Career and Technical Education,” and sessions emphasized special populations, academic integration, effective teaching skills, and expanding technology. Presenters from Anderson County included Jerry Anderson (construction), Phil Warfield (agriculture), and the Automotive Career Academy team (ACCTC Principal Kelly Myers, CTE curriculum coordinator Tricia Jones, and teachers David J. Wood, Leanna Surrett, and Jennifer Goins). Those attending were, from left, Buddy Crass, Daphne Douglas, Robbie Herrell, Jones, Warfield, Gary Jeffers, Surrett, Judy Miller, CTE Director Tim Parrott, Goins, Dianne Teffeteller, ACCTC Assistant Principal Alvin Taylor, Dana Early, Holli Grubb, Estle Muncy, Cindy Robinson, David Landrum, Lori Houck, Myers, and Brenda Shelton.
